

YHTEYS – communities collaborating and learning together

NEED

co-operation and interaction between folk education centers, libraries and the University of Lapland.

BENEFIT

Citizen juries are one way to increase deliberative democracy and active citizenship in open learning environments.

The aim for storytelling is to support individuals' skills of lifelong learning and information inquiry. During storytelling meetings different generations will encounter and interact.

APPROACH

- to create active national and local networks and to share information between partners
- to act directly on the grass roots of active citizenship: special storytelling events and citizen jury meetings will be planned and organized in co-operation with the partners.

COMPETITION

Storytelling, talking and doing.
